This year, our junior class has proven to be a force to be reckoned with. We have accomplished many things here in our third year at NAHS, and as our first year as upperclassmen. We have remained versatile by having all of our classmates involved in many different activities, including sports, music, theater and art. We have produced many high ranking scores in the Spanish and French National Exams, showing that we have our priorities straight and eyes on the prize. We know how to work hard and play hard, especially at school rallies.

We show our enthusiasm for our class through our school spirit, even if it is a little over-the-top at times.

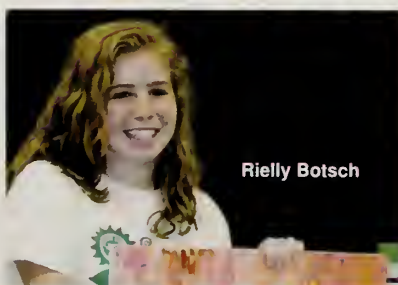

As we look back, it is hard to believe that three of our four years here have already flown- by, but we are determined to make our next year as seniors one to remember. We have learned a lot from our teachers and principal, and cherish everything we have gained from NAHS thus far. As our junior year winds down and we bid farewell to the seniors, we must take over as top dogs of the school and continue to climb the ladder of success, to make sure the class of 2011 is one to be remembered.

Junior Prom 2010

Date: May 8th, 2010
Time: 6:30-10:30 pm
Location: Rhodes of the Pawtuxet

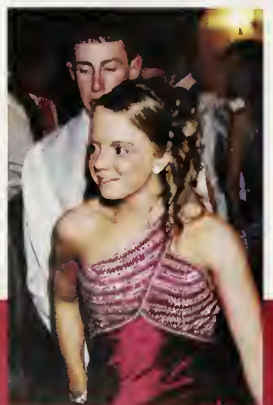

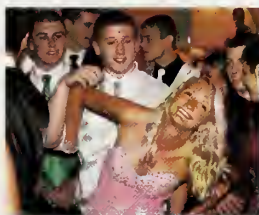

Description

The officers and class advisors of the Junior class proved themselves more than capable of creating an incredible event for their class to enjoy. The 2010 Junior Prom was a huge success, and definitely a night to remember.

With delicious food and catchy music, the night was set in stone to be one of the best junior proms this school has ever seen. Everybody was dressed to impress: the boys stood out in their tuxedos and colorful vests, the girls dazzled in their gowns and high heels. Cliques and inhibitions were thrown away while everybody let loose and danced the night away.

Sophomore year. That odd, middle child of the high school experience: one step above freshman, but not quite an upperclassman. This past year, we finally got settled into the high school environment, and established ourselves well enough to give directions to the pool on the third floor. Our experience was perhaps most prominently marked by our upwards movement in athletic and academic realms. Many who had previously played on Freshmen and JV teams were promoted to Varsity positions. At the same time, we began to feel the heat of impending college considerations when we took the PSATs. These were our last days before having to kick our efforts into high gear, and we knew that. That's what made Sophomore year such a good time. Personally, it felt like it was that last border year between being a kid and not being a kid. Next year, we will be upperclassman and will have to really start stressing about college. It obviously goes without saying that this year marked the end of Mr. Gay's role as our principal. Although his departure comes at the halfway point of our high school careers, he has played a major role in shaping our high school experience, and the entire Sophomore class wishes him the best of luck in his future.

Frosh/Soph Social 2009

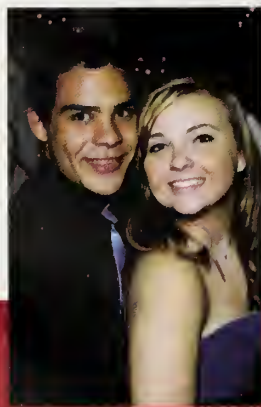

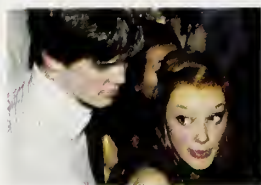

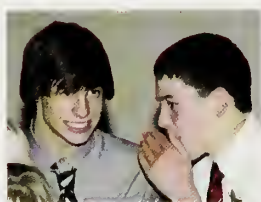

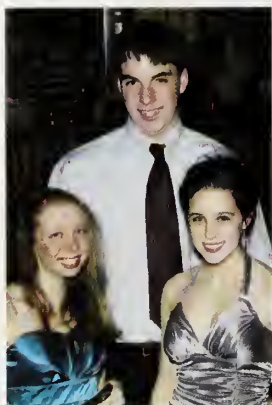

Date: December 11th, 2009
Time: 7:00 PM EST
Location: the Senior Pit

Description

Lights low, music blasting, people singing along to the D.J... students partied 'til they lost their voices and got blisters on their feet. The Senior Pit was transformed into an inviting dance floor with the help of the Student Council, Class Officers, and their supervisors. The two youngest classes of NAHS were united and their inner craziness was unleashed. All the while, cameras flashed to remember how dazzling everyone looked in their dresses and suits. Everyone let loose and had a good time. It was certainly a night that won't soon be forgotten!

We have learned a lot from our teachers and principal, and cherish everything we have gained as freshmen, class of 2013. We entered a strange new environment...we were the new kids who started off at the bottom of the food chain in NAHS. We had to overcome the many difficulties of a new school, new schedule, and tiny lockers. Thanks to a very supportive principal and helpful teachers, the journey was made so much easier. The upperclassmen were also a huge help in showing us the new places and things we would see in NAHS, like the swimming pool on the roof. We've definitely been tried and tested as a freshman class, but we pulled through and showed that we weren't giving up very easily. Over the course of the year we adapted to the newer and more difficult classes and excelled both in and out of the classroom. We always had great showings at all the Renaissance assemblies and our talented performers did a great job both on stage and behind it. Our many talented athletes continued the great tradition of Big Red Athletics by joining the freshmen, JV, and varsity teams. It has been a very positive year for the freshman class and I think all of us are looking forward to our next three years in NAHS.

Sports: Let's get ready for tryouts.

They're the worst. Believe me, the season isn't half as bad as tryouts.

Sports: Time to join football. Least you won't get cut

Or join cross country. Tough races but so rewarding. (brian carroll)

Sports: Join Swim, New coach, new start.

Meghan Wynn definitely helped the team out when she was called up from the Junior Varsity. She's a very naturally talented athlete.

Kelsey Weymouth focuses intently as she returns a serve. Kelsey showed her talent by earning a Hockomock League All Star selection.

Kate Boisseau (left) gets ready for her serve. Kate never gave up and earned her teammates' respect.

Jen McBrine positions herself so that she can return the ball. Jen is a hard-working and very reliable player to have.

Tick, Tick, Boom!!!

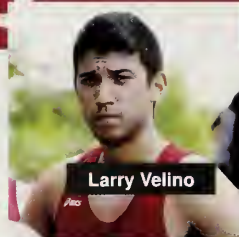

Robin Armstrong and Rachel Gould:

With a regular season record of 16-2, the girls' volleyball team was near perfect in the eyes of the community, and the team wouldn't have wanted the season any differently. As a team, we learned to love the back brace and the elbow high-fives before and after every game. With our sharp, new long-sleeved jerseys, we looked as good as we played. For the first time in years, we swept Franklin; even more impressively, we took Canton in five games on their home court. We'll never forget how we rushed the court after winning the fifth game against our Hockomock League rival. We came together again as Kate Boisseau was hospitalized due to the swine flu. We all were gorgeous in our hospital masks! From pumping it up on the bus to "no excuses," and from Rachel Gould's broken body to Coach Weymouth's broken glasses, we stuck together through everything. This season was the epitome of perfection because of the people and the memories, not the victories, and we would never change the way we spent our senior year volleyball season. Good luck to the 2010 captains, Jennifer Perkins and Kate Boisseau!

Walker Teso's hard work as a first year senior runner motivated the rest of the team and hopes to translate to the basketball court.

Brian Carroll, the team's unsung hero, always finished his races strong.

"Who Wears Short Shorts?" Yeah...We Know

Max Nolan: Fueled on Boneyard's Special, 30 cent wing night, and their bottomless pitchers of Mountain Dew, the 2009 cross country team kicked through another tough season. Plagued by injuries, either from infected blisters, growing too fast, or from sprinting into a fence trying to catch a Frisbee during gym class, (you know who you are) the team only had all of its varsity runners for a mere three meets. The season ended with a record of 3 wins and 6 losses. Despite our team's potential we were just plain unlucky. After five months of sweating, bleeding, and "crying tears of vomit," (direct quote from Coach McGrail) the Class B State Meet came around. The last meet of the season was one of the best races we've ever run. With the torrential downpours and the windy, 40 degree weather, we prepared ourselves for the run of a lifetime. With three runners placing in the top 110 in the state: Max Nolan (39th), Brian Carroll (101st), and Nick O'Leary (103rd), the season came to a halt. The end of season banquet was held at the Olive Garden where Most Valuable Runner was awarded to Max Nolan, Unsung Hero to Brian Carroll, and Captain of the 2010 team to Nick O'Leary. Good luck next year, guys, and remember, "Someone may beat you, but they'll have to bleed to do it."
-Steve Prefontaine

We Gonna Run This Town Tonight!

Vanessa Parker: "Racing teaches us to challenge ourselves. It teaches us to push beyond where we thought we could go. It helps us to find out what we are made of. This is what we do. This is what it's all about" - PattiSue Plummer, U.S. Olympian.

This quote summarized our 2009 season. Since the first practice, we knew it would be a season to remember. Starting in the August heat, we gained endurance; we continued to get better with every race. From hill workouts to repeat miles, we hated our lives, but were later thankful because we became strong. We loved doing pilates and ab work.. oh wait, nope we didn't, but Shannon Haughey and Laura Speicher always kept us laughing. As fall came, we adjusted to the cold weather, as a team. During champion season, a mystery run Coach Bennett made for us ended at her house for breakfast. We all have to agree that Coach Bennett's dog is the cutest ever!

The last meet of the season was awesome: monsoon rain and freezing winds in Boston at Franklin Park. But, we did it, covered in mud and soaked head to toe. Overall, we had an amazing season and I wouldn't change a thing; the memories we've created are forever. The 2010 captains, Laura Speicher and Brianna Kimball will whip those girls into shape! Good luck with your future seasons! Follow your hearts and dream big, girls!

Tyler Cannon shows off his great fashion sense with his unique straw sun hat. Tyler was not only a good dresser, but played some good golf and was one of the team's leaders.

Look Good to Play Good

Tyler Cannon: Most people think of golf as an individual sport, and it is on the professional level, but in high school it has every aspect of a team. Teammates pair up in twos for each match, and this is vital since your partner can help you read greens or choose the correct club. Our team had great compatibility. Everyone had a partner they could easily play with, and help to get better scores. We would not always come out on top, but we were always very competitive – like our match against Attleboro where we tied eight scores, which is extremely rare. We had a great and fun season while building talent for the future. We all got along great and improved as golfers. We may not have always played the best, but we always looked the best with our black pants, matching sweater vests and unique hats. Dan McKim and Brendan Nolan always kept the team loose and laughing, while Adam Carey and Tyler Cannon kept everyone focused on the goals; it was a great season. Captain Dylan Estrella was a leader on and off the course and was named Hockomock League All Star.

The Year

Josh Harris, Joe Kummer, and Dylan Rayburg: Coming off a disappointing end to the 2008 football season, our goals for 2009 were to win a Hock championship and bring Hilda back home where she belonged. This year the Hock was more competitive than any other year in recent memory. Five teams all had a legitimate chance at the title and it seemed unlikely anyone would go undefeated. We started the season with a blowout of new opponent Wakefield and a thrashing of archrival Bishop Feehan. We then battled our way through a grueling Hock schedule and despite our great efforts, we came up three plays short of the elusive championship. The season's defining moment came on a Saturday in early November when we faced off against always-tough Mansfield, just days after the funeral services of former Rocketeer quarterback Kyle Van De Giesen. The fact that his brother Ryan had joined our coaching staff this year made the night even more emotional. With just four minutes left, we trailed 25-14 when everything came together. We marched down the field and on a do-or-die fourth and goal, Joe Kummer scrambled around and found Evan Dean open for his first career catch and TD in one of the most improbable plays ever seen. This was followed up by an onside kick recovery by Brett Mastropoli, and another impressive drive, culminating in a Danny Johnson touchdown catch and Dylan Rayburg 2 point conversion. The defense held to cap one of the greatest wins in North's storied history. We celebrated with Joe Kummer and Tyler Matte singing "Rockin Robin" the whole ride home. We finished the season by completing the second half of our goal and bringing Hilda home. A 33-point destruction of Attleboro left everyone with a great feeling and brought the seniors' football careers to a terrific ending.

It's Our Time

Jillian Haney and Abby Glennon: We came into our season ready to prove that we were a new, better team. With all of our work at captains' practices and our crazy week of camp, we gained more confidence. Starting the season tying Feehan, we knew our muscle aches had paid off. Not only were we on our game on the field, we were a closer team than ever before.

Picking each other up during the brutal 120's, goofing off at sleepovers, and stuffing our faces at team dinners became our culture. With the chemistry on our team, we managed to do some amazing things, like beat formerly undefeated Canton. YEAH, THAT'S RIGHT.

Although one win short of the playoffs, we never gave up, and the bonds between us were never broken. Bringing our Blue-Red Cup trophy home gave the seniors a sense of accomplishment. I'm sure we'll all never forget Brooke Dean and Kassandra Raposo going wild during practice, or calling our coach Burgy Bear. (You know you love us.) The records don't matter, but the memories do, and they'll last a lifetime.

We know the 2010 captains Ashleigh Chretien and Alex Rousseau will lead the team to an amazing season next year. Never forget, "left hand in because it's closer to your heart." Play with heart, girls; give it everything you've got. We love every one of you, good luck!

To the Last Whistle

Alex Ventola: After a tough first round loss to Brockton in the MIAA tournament last season we came into the '09 season with the sole goal of getting back to the tournament. Our team had all the pieces necessary to make a run deep into the playoffs.

With six of our eleven starters being seniors we had plenty of veteran leadership on the field at all times. Chris McKearney showed poise in net and controlled the box. Co-captain Alex Ventola challenged every 50-50 ball with his tough and physical style of play. Outside defender Mike Fein's strong man-to-man helped to frustrate opposing offenses. Center midfielder Connor Grealish controlled the middle with his big stature and impressive foot skills. The other co-captain Toby Berkowitz used his speed and scoring touch to lead the team in goals. Outside-mid Justin Crear's never quit attitude kept the team going.

A lucky stoppage time goal by Feehan in our first game forced a tie that somewhat set the tone for our season. From that point on we tied many close games.

Going into the last game of the season against Mansfield we needed just one point to clinch a tournament birth and did so in dominant fashion.

Although we couldn't pull out a victory in our first round game against BC High, we showed that North soccer would always play hard to the final whistle.

"Go, Fight, Win, Together!"

Kathryn Bagarella and Allie Achin:

The 2009 field hockey season was one of change. We had a new varsity coach, a lot of new varsity players, and tons of talented freshmen on the JV team. Even with all of these changes, we had an unforgettable season. Even though our record of 4-14 didn't show it, all of our hard work at practice paid off. Some girls on our team even won awards, such as Meg Feeley, winning Sun Chronicle All-Star. Meg Morra and Allie Achin also received honorable mentions. Our first win against Stoughton really pumped us up for the rest of our games. In the next few games, we worked our way up to beat Sharon, and then our rivals, Attleboro! They were undefeated, but with our great teamwork, we pulled it off!

In the second half of our season, we only won one game, but we kept the team spirit up, especially for our senior tribute game against Attleboro. Throughout our whole season, from July to October, we were always a close-knit team. There were tons of team dinners and countless laughs during practices. We survived the mud, the rain, and the difficult games, but we made it through together. We'll miss everyone and good luck next year!

Love, your captains,
Kathryn Bagarella and Allie Achin

Play With Confidence, Walk With Pride —

Alex Ventola and Justin Crear:

Our hockey season was definitely one of ups and downs. No matter what our record may have been the season was really about playing with confidence and walking with pride. It was about the love of the sport. And anyone willing to get up at 3:30 am for practice before school must really love the sport as well as their team. As a third year varsity program we now hoped to be a force to reckon with in the Hockomock League. With nine seniors we had the experience we needed and were no longer just the new team in the league. We came into the season with the hope of making North's first ever tournament appearance. Though we fell a bit short of our goal, we continued the North Hockey tradition of always playing hard until the final buzzer.

We could definitely end the season with our heads held high. We faced a lot of adversity throughout the season with a coaching change and numerous injuries. We almost never had our full compliment of players available. No matter the hardship we always managed to bounce back up. We ended the season with a great run winning 4 of our last 6 and tying arch-rival Bishop Feehan by scoring a goal with just under a minute left and one more with only 6 seconds left. The group of players this season remained a tight-knit group (thanks to our pasta dinners at Coach Horagan's house) and we will never forget each other.

Dan McCracken: Our new coach Chris Payson pushed us through a great season with some unforgettable practices like swimming fully clothed, with our legs tied together, buckets dragging behind us, and our "one, two, threes" after practice. Our team was stacked! Connor Devers, back for his junior year, broke the team's 200 IM record. Sophomore Steve Housman broke the team record in the 500 free. Freshmen Ben Hargrave and Drew Wentworth proved to be a big part of the team always placing high. Conor Nugent made himself heard cheering on everyone and keeping "elbows in". Greg Achin made time cut after time cut on his 500. Ryan Bowen fought his 100 fly time down to a 1:01.72. Mike Bradley trudged through "one, two, threes" with jeans on all season, lettering his first year swimming. CJ and Jake we all turned to when assistance was needed with any stroke. Ryan Boraski went to states in his first year. Our season came down to the last meet against KP. Both teams were undefeated and we were outnumbered 26-13. It all came down to the final event the 400 freestyle relay... we lost 84-82. We took second in the league and less than 12 hours later swam at the Hock Championship. With all 13 of our swimmers and the girls cheering us on, we received 9th in sectionals and 12th at states. The team's success this year was a result of each and every guy on the team. I was honored to be their captain.

A Winter of Wins

Catherine Hargrave and MaryLou Hedberg:

After a summer of sudden changes, we were able to start off in the right direction under the guidance of new head coach Chris Payson. Our goal remained the same: to win. And win we did. We finished with an undefeated dual meet season, placing first in the Hockomock League. We went on to place fourth in sectionals and ninth in the state!

The talent of our swimmers was outstanding, we even had freshmen breaking records: Sarah Hargrave in the 500 free and Emily Sanders in the 100 breast. Between our speed in the water and crazy dances, there was never a time when all eyes weren't on us.

Our incredible bond as a family made the season fly by. Between team dinners, tie-dying and bus rides, there was never a time when we weren't having fun. Our hard work and determination at practice and dry-lands not only helped us improve, but helped us bond as well (don't fall off your bike!).

None of us will ever think of '1,2,3' the same way again. Our four years on the swim team have left us with so many incredible memories, and we wish the underclassmen the best of luck next season. Remember: "If you train hard, you'll not only be hard, you'll be hard to beat."

Bring 'Em Out!

Robin Armstrong and Nicole Hurd:

The 2009-2010 basketball season was one that we will never forget. Loaded with underclassmen, people had their doubts about us. But, our amazing team chemistry helped us to pull out some huge wins. We finished the regular season by winning 6 out of our last 7 games, including comebacks against Canton and Stoughton and underdog wins against Mansfield and Bishop Feehan (this being the first time in our varsity careers that we beat Feehan, and it made our lives complete). Aside from the times we spent on the court, we created memories at team sleepovers, dinners, and our famous trip to Wright's. With all of the craziness, we learned some very important lessons: avoid feral goats, mountain lions, grizzly bears, and mallard ducks at all times, Helen will never be able to hear...ever, and it is necessary to leave red streamers on the walls and bleachers of gyms that lack proper red decorations. We also learned how to literally STOMP out the competition and how to show our patriotism in interesting ways during the national anthem. As the season came to a close, we knew that we would have to leave something very special: a team that not only loved the sport, but also loved each other. Good luck next season girls, and always remember to stick together!

Show 'Em Red

Danny Lang and Tyler Matte:

We did our thing out on the court
We had great fans, who showed their support,
Mr. Perron always had the scouting report
He was a great mentor, taught us the sport
We started with Alf, Timmy, and JP
In the post we had Flan and Fitzy
We said, "Fitz just dunk then we will win"
But all the kid did was lay it in Alfred fit right in at point guard
Never thought a Swede would work so hard
Flan grabbed boards, Timmy played D
JP made it rain, 3 after 3
The seniors came in hungry, 'twas our last year
Had to give the rowdy crowd a reason to cheer
Walker had that Afro on his head
Look at his shoes, forgot our color was red
We only won eight games the season before
But we set our goals high, we were gonna win more
We worked hard in practice, it started to show
We went on a streak, winning nine in a row
Beat Mansfield and Franklin now first in the Hock
Ranked 13th in the state left 'em in shock
Finally the state tourney, with a home game
Attleboro played hard, but we put them to shame
Then the number one seed, the best in the sport
Onto Madison Park, playin' on their court
We fought real hard but came up short
Had to leave the gym with a police escort
13 and 3 league, 15 wins overall
We brought pride back to North Basketball
Our coaches and parents, all of you we thank
Also our cheerleaders, and that Chinese kid Frank

Slay the Dragon

Brian Carroll: The Boy's Indoor Track team looked great from the beginning. With captains Max Nolan, Brian Carroll, and Dan McKim, leadership was sure to be good. There was a record turnout to sign ups with a strong number of underclassmen. We cruised through the first meet against Canton and Foxboro getting a win against both teams. The meet was a perfect introduction for the younger guys to the tradition of North Attleboro Track and Field. Next match was against KP and reigning champs Mansfield. Our sole goal was to slay the dragon known as Mansfield. The meet came down to the 4x4 relay and the whole team cheered them on. The North boys were able to hold out, giving us the victory over our rivals. Despite the great excitement we put the big win behind us and moved on to our next two meets, first Franklin and OA and then Sharon and Stoughton. Wins in both of these left us at a perfect 8-0, Hock Champions for the first time in two decades. We seniors had achieved what all the guys we used to look up to could not. We continued our success into the post season and statewide competitions. The North team ran away with the Divisional State Relay Championship, a first in North history. We then went on to tie for second at the Division 2 State Championship Meet. This was without a doubt the most successful season in Boys Indoor Track's history. Well done guys, we were all part of something special this year.

Christy Deninger and Amanda Cangiano:

With our goals set, we strived for the best; we wanted to see our head coach wear that ridiculous orange tux...and we did it.

With a young team, we still managed to hang on, and finish our season 5-3 in the tough Hockomock League. To lift the team's spirits, rap battles were put together that brought humor to the team and even spread to the boys track team. We were driven to our full potential to run fast, jump high and throw far. Along with our newly created "motivational" speeches, we welcomed a number of new coaches. Returning, and now head coach, was Coach Thomas, Coach McGrail, and Coach Holster. Our new additions were Coach Beith who helped the short sprinters, Coach Alessi who helped the high jumpers, and Coach Aina who was a hurdle specialist.

Due to all of our coaching, we were able to receive individual attention, which made this an overall great season.

As the seniors leave, we leave behind a great team waiting to do damage to the Hock. We hand the baton off to new captains Monica Costello, and Abby Moriarty. We thank the team and coaches for a memorable season, and we wish the best of luck to you all next year!

A Family, Not a Team

Rick Garceau:

The 2009–2010 North Wrestling season can now be added to a long list of unforgettable seasons for the program. After a long, grueling season filled with ups and downs, the team was able to prove that they were one of the top programs in the state as always.

North has developed a reputation as a tough, aggressive, and hard-working group of athletes. However after graduating two talented senior classes, many people doubted our young North team. As postseason time was approaching, the team was determined to prove that we should not be overlooked. The team went to the Division 2 South Sectional Championship Tournament filled with motivation to defeat anyone who stood in our way. We were able to overcome all opponents and prove we deserved our 11th Sectional Championship.

The North Wrestling program is not just a team, it is a family. The success of the team has resulted from a strong bond between the athletes. With coaches who treat you like sons and teammates who treat you like brothers, you can attack any obstacle with confidence and determination. Without our coaches this team would not be the same. Your guidance and leadership have brought us the many accomplishments we are so proud of. Thank you for being our coaches, our mentors, our teachers, our friends, and our family.

Abby Glennon and Kristina O'Halloran:

The only word that comes to mind when describing the North Attleboro Gymnastics 2009-2010 winter season is incredible! This year the team became a more diverse, athletic group, who strived for improvement and success. The team also grew in size, as we welcomed eight new, very young, talented athletes.

The season began with a bang, as the team won the first three meets. At that point, we had the confidence we needed to guide us through the rest of the season. Lead by Coach Krissy, we worked out in the weight room and built up not only our muscles, but our desire to be a closer, more connected team. Along with our workouts, the team bonded by sharing a few laughs and memories at Bertucci's and Dairy Queen.

In the end, the team finished the Hockomock season off with a record of 7 wins and 4 losses, and with a well-deserved seat in Sectionals! We had our highest team average to make it to Sectionals, a 134.95. The success we had this season was almost too much, even for words, but what we can say is that we were so proud of everyone! This team and our coach has forever earned a special place in our hearts. Best of luck next year, we'll miss you, and we love you!

Small Team, Big Heart

Lyndsey Rasicot and Ashley Sherman:

The 2009-2010 fall and winter cheerleading seasons were both very successful! The team started off the season by attending UCA camp. Here, a lot of our seniors made the all star team; we knew we had promising fall and winter seasons coming.

In the fall, we cheered on the football team to many victories, as well as prepared for the winter competition season. With three first place finishes from David Prouty, Holy Name, and Natick, we started out very strong. The competition began to heat up as the Hockomock Championship approached, but we managed to take home the championship title again!

With a first place finish at Regionals, we stepped up our game even more to remain on top. At States, we ended up disappointed with a second place finish, but we know we did the best we could! With the second place finish, we qualified for the New England Championship. At New England, we defended our title when we earned number one in New England!

We're so proud of each and every one of you girls and we know that you'll continue to be successful in the future! We hand off our captainship to Erika Rollins and Jennah Jacobs; we love you girls, keep up the good work!

The girls eagerly await the start of the rally so that they can show everyone their hard work.

Kings of the Court

Austin Rainville and Sanjeeva Chetty: Coming into the season we had no idea it would be the best in North history. After a long week of tryouts, the team was set and each member was eager for the first match versus Franklin. With senior captains Sanjeeva Chetty and Austin Rainville playing the 1st singles and 1st doubles spots respectfully, the Boys' Tennis team quickly took a 4-1 victory against the Panthers and started a winning streak that would lead to a 12-0 record for the team. This streak included big victories over the previous Hockomock League Co-Champions King Philip and Sharon. The 3-2 victory over Sharon marked the 1st victory over the Eagles in over a decade with the deciding point coming from the dexterous doubles pair of juniors Dave Charboneau and Evan Briggs.

With the skills of varsity players including juniors Jeff Mark, Charlie Sexton, Joe Menyo, and Ben Beane, as well as sophomore Colin "Baby Mario" Sexton, we gained a 16-2 record and the 3rd seed in the MIAA State Tournament. Along with this great regular season record came a Hockomock League title, the 2nd in North history and first since '79. Needless to say this year's team was a force to be reckoned with as shown in the State Tournament. In the tournament we blew through Taunton and Xaverian. Our season ended in heartbreak against Needham.

The 2010 North Attleboro Tennis Team achieved unprecedented success and will truly make this team stand out in the history of NAHS tennis.

Meet Your Match!Brenna Pereira and Tori Morris:

The 2010 girls tennis season is certainly one that won't be forgotten. We started off the season with some big challenges as the 2009 first doubles team became the new and inexperienced first and second singles players. The second doubles team moved their way up to first doubles. For the first time ever, the number of freshmen on the team was greater than the number of sophomores, juniors, and seniors combined. However, this allowed for two freshmen to break into the seven-person starting varsity line up.

We were determined to be successful, but we were not afraid to have fun. This included singing on the bus, annoying the freshman baseball team with our friend Mr. Nibbles, or using crazy nicknames like Dirty Hands (Tori Morris), Fuzzy Legs (Brenna Pereira), FireArms (MaryLou Hedberg), Ankle Socks (Neha Patel), and Loaded Pants (Sarabeth Parent).

In the last game of the regular season, we defeated long standing champions King Philip and took the league title. With the support of our families, friends, teammates, and coach, we ended the season 19-1 and soon headed off to the playoffs as a two seed! Thanks everyone for an unbelievable season, we wish you the best of luck next year. Love you all!

One Pitch at a Time

Steve Sellner: The 2010 North Attleboro baseball season was a roller coaster ride. Under the leadership of seniors Matt Moore, Evan Dean, Ryan Minichiello, Brett Mastropoll, and Steve Sellner, the team set high expectations for the season, hoping to recapture the glory of Big Red baseball.

From the first week of the season, it was clear the league was up for grabs and we felt confident that we could compete with anyone. During the first half of the season, we had many triumphant victories over teams such as Sharon, Canton, Franklin, Stoughton, Foxboro and Mansfield. We reached as high as second place in the competitive Hockomock league and met with undefeated Oliver Ames in a game filled with playoff implications. A heroic Big Red comeback tied the game late; however a walkoff single by the Tigers left the Hockomock title out of our grasps.

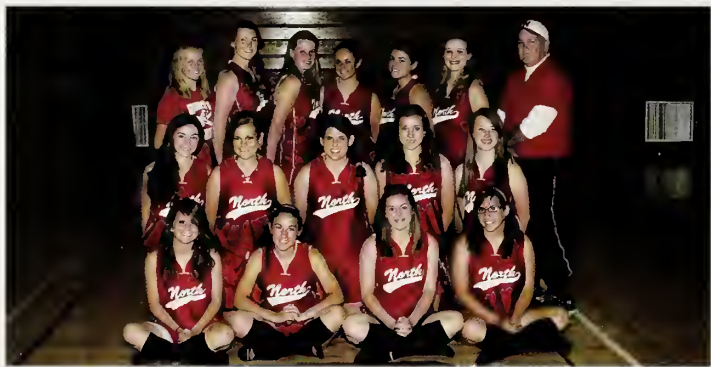

Injuries throughout the season resulted in a slump during the second half of the season, bringing our record to 10-10. A first round loss to Bridgewater-Raynham in the playoffs ended a season filled with constant adversity and competitiveness. The seniors wish the best of luck to the returning players and coaches for the 2011 season.

Together on Three!

Jillian Haney and Jackie O'Neil:

Through injury and sickness, the 2010 NAHS softball team pulled off the best season since 1990. Despite various setbacks, we worked as hard as ever to achieve a 13-win season. We had a home seed in the MIAA tournament for the first time in 10 years, seeded number 9. Starting the season off at a perfect 6-0, our spirits were high. Combined with the morale and pump-up speeches from Jillian Haney and Jackie O'Neil, the team was the most tight-knit one in years. We managed to win every single close game we played.

Team cookouts and making shirts only strengthened our bonds. Mikaela Caracciolo always kept the bus rides a surprise... "Hey coach, want a cookie?!" or "Throw her out! Out the window!" The younger girls were really forced to step up this year, due to the lack of upperclassmen, and they never once let us down. We're so proud of each one of you girls and what you've helped us accomplish; we never could have done what we did this year without you. We're sure Jesse Lake will be an amazing captain next season.

Good luck girls, we love you! Remember to always keep your heads up. We know you'll do amazing in your future seasons, keep up the good work!

Thirsty for Victories

Barrett Holden and Matt Catalano: The 2010 lacrosse season was one marked by many challenges to overcome. We faced tough competition in a very strong Hockomock league as well as injuries and some internal problems. Our team was lead by a strong returning defense of senior long poles Barrett Holden, Matt Catalano, and Tyler Cannon and senior defensive mid-fielder Josh "Waterboy" Chretien. Senior dangler Jeremy Roche led the offense from the midfield and hard-shooting Brad Alix and Dylan Estrella solidified the attack. Seniors Garrett Plath, Zak Kirby, and Adam Carey used their skills to bolster the team. We were also fortunate to have many underclassmen chip in and help the team.

The season started off tough with a heart-breaking 11-10 OT loss in the first game of the season. From there we hit a tough injury filled stretch that included many close losses. We began to become frustrated and tensions were high but Josh Chretien and his love of water kept us loose. We finally pulled through with our first big victory of the season against Sharon on a clutch goal by Jeremy Roche with 41 seconds left. The monkey was finally off our backs. We settled in and played well the rest of the year.

To future players, remember to always drink plenty of water before practice because you don't get any during; and be lacrosse players, don't just play lacrosse.

Kathryn Bagarella and Alexandra Achin:

The 2010 girls lacrosse season was a crazy and exciting journey! Although our record didn't show it, our efforts in all of our games improved tremendously throughout the course of our season. We broke a lot of records this year, including most goals scored by one player in a season, Brianna Doherty. We also set the record for most goals ever scored by a North Attleboro lacrosse team when we scored 21 goals against Bridgewater-Raynham. That day was quite memorable, with the field all decorated and the morale high. Since it was senior night, there were more fans than ever cheering us on.

We overcame a lot of ups and downs, but in the end, this year was a great experience! Some of our favorite memories were tie-dying, team dinners, and the "steal the bacon" game.

Our team never gave up, no matter the circumstances. For instance, when we played King Philip, a very skilled team, we were ahead most of the first half and we kept them to a very low score! Although we didn't end up winning, we were excited and proud to compete with one of the top teams in our league.

The seniors will miss everyone next year and wish the 2011 team the best of luck!

Ashley Walnut prepares to make a save. She was a strong force in the net for her team this season.

Run Fast, Throw Far, and Jump Long!—

Christy Deininger, Robin Armstrong and Amanda Cangiano:

This year's track and field team proved to be quite the force in the Hockomock League. Although many considered us a "young team," our senior leadership guided our underclassmen and allowed us to become strong from sprints and distance to throws and jumps. With the underclassmen proving themselves at the Freshman-Sophomore meet on our home track, we knew the season would be a good one.

Scoring points wasn't a problem for our underclassmen standouts; together with the already talented junior and senior girls, we sent a handful of girls to Class B States, All-States, and New Englands. Our talents weren't constricted to just the track. We rocked out to Tik Tok during warm-ups at practice, constructed (and destroyed) human pyramids at our team bonfire, displayed our musical talents as we sang along to Love Story, and, most importantly, looked fabulous in our new warm-up suits and new uniforms!

As the girls' team, once again, won the fundraiser competition, we enjoyed first helpings at the pizza and ice cream party while the boys' team had to wait their turn. This team, although small, was truly amazing, and we wish all of you the best of luck next season!

Running for Another Title

Matt Smith: After coming off a strong indoor season, the boy's spring track team led by captains Brian Carroll, Matt Smith, and Kevin Peter had high hopes for the 2010 season. However, after facing adversity in the beginning of the season, the team got off to a rough start as we lost our opening meet to a talented Oliver Ames team. Losing the first meet was not the way we wanted to start the season, but we rebounded as a team and would go on to win the next 7 dual meets including a win against Attleboro.

This set up the dream match up against Mansfield for the Hockomock title that everybody was waiting for. In the end, we fell short to the depth of the Mansfield team, but overall our season was a success.

At Hocks, everybody went in knowing we would have to have our best days to defeat Mansfield, and while we were close, we could not pull out the victory. Some performances that highlighted the season were Vladimir Francois re-breaking his 400-meter hurdle record, Kevin Peter taking down the discus record and the 4x100 relay team of Brady Shorey, Vlad Francois, Grant Burwell, and Matt Smith also taking a school record of their own. All in all, the season was a success, and best of luck to the team next year.

Senior athletes say their good-byes

Date: May 18, 2010
Time: 6:00 PM EST
Location: Lake Pearl Luciano's

Description

Senior athletes, faculty, friends and family gathered at Lake Pearl Luciano's. Each senior athlete was presented with a plaque identifying the sports that each student-athlete participated in during their senior year. With the sports captains presenting Mr. Bob Gay their respective pins on his new letterman's jacket, the evening was a success. Nicole Hurd was presented with the Alyssa Gutauskas Memorial Scholarship, Matt Moore won the Dr. Daniel M. DeYoung award, and MaryLou Hedberg won the Maurice D. Grant award. Several other students were presented with the MIAA Sportmanship awards, demonstrating good leadership throughout their athletic seasons. With Mr. Carl Mitchell giving the history about North Attleboro athletics, the crowd was very pleased with the evening.

Spirit Week 2009

Date: October 09, 2009
 Time: 1:00 PM EST
 Location: Pickering Gymnasium

Description

Spirit Week at NAHS is one of the most vibrant displays of Big Red pride. Each day leads up to the highly anticipated Spirit Contest held at the Homecoming Rally, Friday afternoon. Although we were not able to hold a proper Homecoming Dance, the students were not holding back on their enthusiasm. First walked the freshmen, trying pitifully to make their presence known in yellow. Next, the sophomores donned their green attire and put up a decent fight. The juniors came running in their blue outfits, however, they came nowhere near close to the grand entrance made by the graduating class of 2010. The seniors, in their black and red, stormed into the gymnasium with a vengeance. With a classic round of tug-of-war and an extreme Hula Hoop Competition amongst the fall captains, the seniors battled their way to victory. Easily out-roaring the underclassmen and still beating the juniors, the dominant force of NAHS proved no truly ran the school.

10 Powder Puff 2009

Date: October 12, 2009
Time: 1:00 PM EST
Location: Raymond E. Beaupre Field

Description

Every year, excited fans flock to Beaupre Field to witness the senior girls pummel the juniors in the Powder Puff Football game. This year was no different. Preparation began early and all the participants asked their favorite Big Red player for the honor of wearing his jersey in the coveted game. With a week of practice, hard hits, girl fights, and laughs, both teams put their hard work and effort into taking down the opposing team. In the end, the seniors really pulled it together. With a tough defense and quick offense, the Senior Sharks beat the Junior Jets. The tradition continued, SENIORS ALWAYS WIN. The juniors walked off the field with shame. But, as Coach Rayburg would tell us, "Everybody love everybody."

Information

This year the National Honor Society recognized another group of inductees who demonstrated academic excellence, extracurricular involvement, good citizenship, and positive attitudes, all characteristics of North Attleboro High School. The inductees went through a rigorous application process in which only approximately one third of the eligible applicants were granted membership, a truly impressive honor. The current members worked together with the new inductees to lead the student body in creating another successful year.

Juniors and seniors alike contributed to the success of the National Honor Society's efforts. Throughout the 2009-2010 school year, the members of the National Honor Society volunteered their time in the annual North Attleboro High School Craft Fair, the Thanksgiving bake sale to benefit Lenore's Pantry, the Special Olympics, and many other events throughout the town and school.

Congratulations to the new inductees and officers and good luck next year!

Induction Ceremony

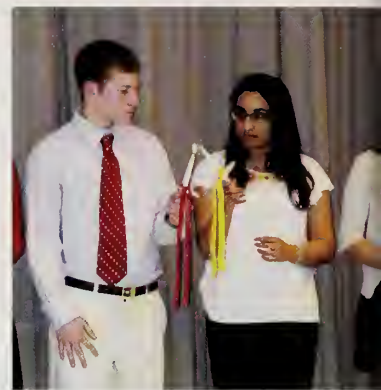

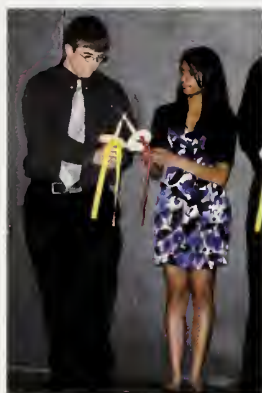

Date: January 28, 2010
Time: 7:00 PM EST
Location: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

The Spanish National Honor Society or Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica was founded in 1953 by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. It recognizes high student achievement in Spanish and promotes interest in Hispanic studies. Each society chapter is named after a prominent Spanish literary or historical figure. The name of the North Attleboro Spanish National Honor Society Chapter is the Pablo Picasso chapter. Junior and senior membership is awarded to students who have shown a dedication to the language through their studies, have maintained above average grades, and have demonstrated excellence of character and good citizenship. The SNHS colors are red and gold, which represent the colors of the Spanish flag. Also, the society motto is, "Todos a una" or "All as one". Members participate in different activities such as a movie night. However, the main activity that SNHS members take part in is a peer-tutoring program called "La Escuelita Española" or "The Little Spanish School". This year, members went to Roosevelt School every day for 2 weeks to teach first, second, and third graders the basics of Spanish. Topics ranged from numbers to elements of nature. Each member came up with his or her own lesson plan and took control of the classroom in order to spread their love of the language. With each lesson, the children made huge strides in their knowledge of Spanish. Such progress demonstrates the hard work, dedication, and love for Spanish that each member of the SNHS possesses.

10 Induction Ceremony

Date: January 28, 2010
 Time: 7:00 PM EST
 Location: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

The French National Honor Society, or Société Honoraire de Français, had yet another exciting year at North Attleboro High School. The Society was founded in 1949, by the American Association of Teachers of French. The French Honor Society motto is "L'homme qui sait deux langues en vaut deux" or "The man who speaks two languages is worth two men." Antoine de Saint-Exupéry is the representative of the French culture chosen for the North Attleboro Chapter. Each year, the school inducts more members as they have reached their respective requirements in the French language. Junior members must enroll in a fourth year of the language, maintain a cumulative average of 90 or above in their first two years of study, and show "a dedication to the study of language, excellence of character, and good citizenship." Senior membership is awarded to the students who maintain a B+ average (or greater) throughout the fourth year of the French language, and display the same characteristics as Junior members. Some of the events for this year included the induction for all new members, a combined French and Spanish Honor Societies movie night, and peer tutoring. No doubt, the society has been immensely successful throughout the school in various aspects, and will only continue to grow with new, intelligent members.

Information

Model U.N., or Model United Nations, is a cooperative group of very diverse students enthusiastic about world matters. However, each member surely maintained his or her own views and opinions. Picking a country to represent as a delegate for the Security Council, each member researched his or her nation in order to provide the best demonstration of the real country's outlooks. Some hot-topic issues discussed at the meetings included conflict diamonds, nuclear weapons, poverty and global warming. The artificial Security Council, led by the Secretary General, then formally debates possible resolutions to the problem while adhering to proper procedures used at actual United Nation assemblies. The group attempts to find a common solution and create a resolution signed by all the participating nations. These mock discussions prep the members for an annual conference held by North Attleboro High School's Model U.N. Various school throughout the area are invited to this thoroughly planned event while our members guide the discussions. In the end, every member is able to express their opinions intelligently and persuasively about important matters outside of the walls of the classroom. -Neha Patel

Science Club had another outstanding year in the labs. Demonstrating all sorts of topics, the officers, with the help of some eager members, displayed entertaining experiments on Friday afternoons. From lighting colored fires, launching potato cannons and smashing cinder blocks, the members of Science Club never held back their passion for science. The members shared this enthusiasm with the younger generations by volunteering to run the "Physics is Fun" workshop at the annual Heritage Day held at the North Attleboro Middle School. Other members also spent an hour every other Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kiff's fourth grade class at Falls School where the group mentored the students as they visited a nearby Vernal Pool. These zealous scientists also had their share of fun with a successful field trip to the Boston Museum of Science where the members submerged themselves in the many informational exhibits and shows. The craze for scientific learning will always remain as the two junior officers continue the fun for next year. -Neha Patel

Information

Friendly Faces is a brand new group this year designed to help new students transition easily into North Attleboro High School. Members of Friendly Faces are responsible for making new students comfortable by offering them a table to eat lunch at or a "friendly face" to see in the hallway. Transitioning into a new school is very difficult. It is always extremely helpful and nice to have a friend to guide the new student and offer assistance whenever it is needed. We hope that every student that walks in these hallways has a helping hand when trying to locate an oddly-placed lab room or a history room in the distant portables.

Thankfully, in our first year of activity, we had an extremely generous amount of "friendly faces" to make this possible. We hope to continue the tradition next year.

YMCA Leaders is a program that allows kids to take part in various volunteer opportunities while learning the core values of the YMCA: Honesty, Responsibility, Respect and Caring. We help with different fundraiser and volunteer opportunities throughout the community. Our Leaders group meets every week to discuss upcoming events and partake in "Values" activities that focus and emphasize on the four core values. Leaders is not just a club that looks impressive on a resume, but it is a family. We create an environment that includes all different personalities while providing a support system for anyone who may need it. We want all of our members to feel free to come to us with any problem they may have so we can help them through it together. Leaders is a club that allows everyone to come together to trust and support anyone through anything.

Information

"Happy to be S.A.D.D"

The acronym S.A.D.D stands for Students Against Destructive Decisions and it is a friendly group of people that meets once a month to discuss and learn about the negative impact destructive decisions can have on our lives. These include drinking or texting while driving, using illegal substances and drugs, and many more. As officers, we planned fun games and activities that made meetings exciting and informational, while still encouraging students to make the better decision. We hope next year's officers can continue our example!

Peer Leaders could not have had a more successful year this year. In our flagship event, the peer leaders helped to make this year's fall Special Olympics a great day for all who participated. Whether it was setting up nets or cheering on the Olympians, the peer leaders were not only noticeable but always willing to lend a helpful hand where ever they could. We hope that the peer leaders continue their hard work next year and continue to make the fall Special Olympics a great event for all that attend. Good luck and keep volunteering!

Konnichiwa!

Greetings from the Anime Club! Anime is a genre of animated series and movies from Japan. Anime Club is an organization that meets to promote anime in a local setting and focuses on broadening cultural horizons. A major event that most members strive to attend is Anime Boston: a two-day event held in the city that gathers Anime fans from around the world. The Anime Club has left its mark on North Attleboro High School such as the addition of an Anime/Manga section in the Media Center.

Information

North Attleboro High School's Art Club is a group of extremely talented artists, drawers, painters and more. These young visionaries help in creating events such as the Junior/Senior Art Show and the Fine Arts Festival. Events such as those display the great works created through hours of hard work and dedication many Art Club members have spent. Every year it seems as though we could never have a more talented bunch. However, every year North Attleboro High School presents another remarkable group of artists with passion and skill.

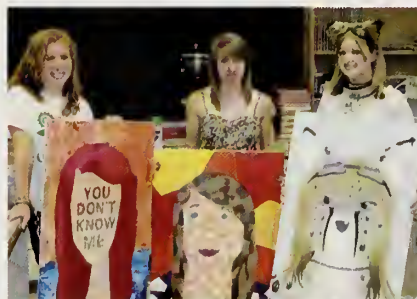

Handmade creations by the Art Club to spice up the hallways of NAHS.

Information

Galadriel is North Attleboro High School's very own literary magazine. The club's advisor, Ms. O'Brien, helped the staff layout, edit and print pages. This enthusiastic group of students spent hours and days reviewing submitted pieces of art and literature to be published in the magazine. This year's subscription was sold for only a $1 in May. This year's magazine was full of original student poetry, artwork, photography, prose and short stories. Throughout the year, the Galadriel staff also elected a theme before final assembly. Great job!

It is no secret that putting together the Northern Light Yearbook is no easy feat. There are times when the editors are found late on Saturday nights working on pages in the coveted yearbook den. From the moment they receive their keys in August, the editors strive their best to make the Northern Light Yearbook another award-winning edition. Without the help from dedicated staff and teacher advisors Mrs. Lush and Mr. Dupre, this goal would be an impossibility. From "tagging" to photo editing, yearbook members have truly made this masterpiece a treasure for the future. When looking back on the precious high school years, alumni will appreciate all that the yearbook offers in memories and good times.

Information

The North Attleboro High School Video Club worked extremely hard this school year to capture all the important moments occurring at the high school. Under the guidance of Mrs. Lush, the dedicated members filmed many events, ceremonies, concerts and assemblies. The club also recorded the fall play Clue, the 2010 One Acts Play Festival, and the Spring Musical, The Music Man. These wonderful events are then aired through our local television station, North TV. Without the time, devotion and perseverance of these members, NAHS events would not be available for future generations to enjoy.

The AP Biology Lab Leaders (AKA Lab Technicians) hit the ground running, preparing labs for Mr. Duluk's infamous AP Bio class. Having conducted the labs ourselves, all of the leaders knew the importance of each preparation step being carried out perfectly. Whether making agar or simply cleaning glassware, the tasks were done meticulously so that the current AP Bio students could seamlessly perform their experiments. Gathering the necessary tools and making the correct broth or solutions, the leaders assembled five trays for every lab. When not busy working, the leaders gathered in the lab prep room to work hard on homework or simply talk and have fun. It was a wonderful experience for everyone, involving education, preparation, and socialization.

10 P.E. Leaders Day

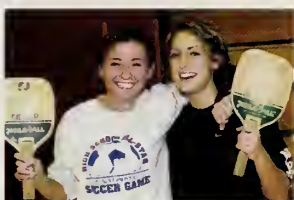

ate: May 12, 2010

Description

This group of Physical Education leaders is certainly one that will go down in the history books. Their outstanding leadership and communication skills combined with their incomparable athleticism helped them to properly lead the slightly misguided freshmen and sophomores to physical education excellence. The "gym leaders" taught their pupils everything from the art of putting away the volleyball nets to sharing some of the most coveted secrets of the one and only...Pickleball. Besides owning on the Pickleball courts, gym leaders also acted as wonderful role models for the younger students. On P.E. Leaders Day, the group fought epic battles in the sporting events of volleyball, dodgeball, and even hacky sack. The scrumptious snacks along with eagerly smiling faces helped set the mood for the event. The younger students can only aspire to follow the Gym Leaders' footsteps of greatness someday.

Do you have what it takes to be the next North Idol?

Date: May 6, 2010
Time: 7:00 PM EST
Location: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

The 2010 North Idol was our toughest competition of musical ability in recent years. This year, many different students came out to show the audience their voices, and to prove to the judges that they had what it takes to be the next North Idol. All different styles of artists performed. We had people with backing tracks, people with acoustic guitar accompaniments, people playing their own accompaniments, and people playing with a full band. Unlike last year, the winner this year was decided by three judges. The judges were Mr. Gay, Mr. Herber, and Mrs. Brattberg. The highlight of this year's North Idol was Joe Kain, last year's winner, and the Foundations' showcase which put the crowd in an uproar of cheers and Mr. Herber in an uproar of anger. At the end of the night, after many great performances, the judges decided that Brendan Duquette with a rendition of "Hey Soul Sister" by Train deserved the title of North Idol. Congratulations Brendan!

Information

North Attleboro High School Theater Company had a stellar year in 2009-2010. The on-stage magic began in the fall with the production of "CLUE!" Based on the movie and ever-popular board game, the show had the packed-house audiences in stitches. The annual One-Act Play Festival was every bit as spectacular as the Fall Play. After a night of bone-chilling horror from "A Night With Edgar Allen Poe," satirical non-sense from "The Hysterical History of the Trojan War", and poignant drama from "The Balcony Scene", the audience made their selections for the yearly awards. The Spring musical was Meredith Willson's "The Music Man". The audience was packed to the limit on both nights as the actors and actresses turned out stellar vocal and theatrical performances. The show was dedicated to Principal Robert Gay, who made a cameo appearance and sang in the finale. For seniors Joe Kain, Ryan Caster, Travis Garlick, Joe Marino, Brendan Emanuel, Jack Cappadona, Larry Velino, Julia Krasney, and Kayla Leary, it was a bittersweet ending. The show was probably the best that they had ever put on and a great last show together. All of them will be sorely missed in 2010-2011.

Date: November 20 and 21, 2009

Time: 7:00 PM EST

Location: Auditorium

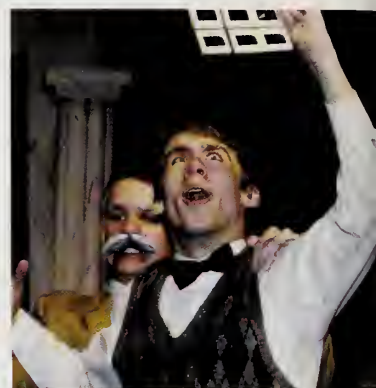

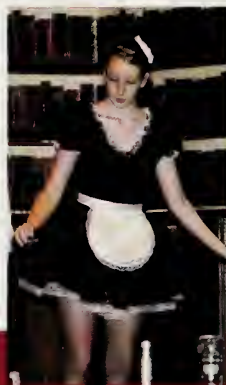

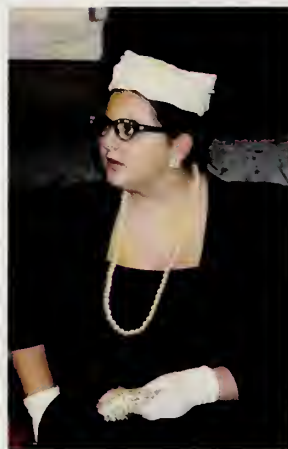

Description

One of the highlights of the first part of the year at North Attleboro High School is the Fall Play. While in recent years, the Fall play had been a drama like Our Town (2007) or a mystery like Murder on the Nile (2008), NAHSTC returned to comedy for the Fall Play in 2009 with their production of Clue! The show quickly became a favorite amongst cast members and audience members alike who had played the board game and seen the movie starring Tim Burton.

The show told the story of six people who were being blackmailed by the odious Mr. Boddy (Chris Cotta) and were all invited to his New England Mansion to discuss their "financial arrangement." Wadsworth (Joe Marino), the British butler, welcomes each of the house guests to the mansion and facilitates the entire evening. Among the guests are Mr. Green (Connor Bry), Mrs. White (Molly Hillis), Ms. Scarlet (Erin Kayata), Mrs. Peacock (Theresa Bertolino), Professor Plum (Travis Garlick), and Colonel Mustard (Jack Cappadonna). Mr. Boddy arrives to dinner and gives each of the guests a murder weapon and advises them to kill Wadsworth or they will be humiliated in court. But when the tables turn and Mr. Boddy, the cook (Colleen Regan), and French maid Yvette (Mary O'Donnell) end up dead, all are implicated. The play tells the story of the houseguests hysterical follies while searching through the house, looking for clues to the murder, and eventually discovering the murderer after a wild re-enactment on the part of Wadsworth. In a strange twist, the cast rehearsed multiple endings and allowed the audience to pick the ending at intermission. The show was a tremendous success.

Description

The annual One-Act Play Festival was as good as ever in 2010. The festival featured two dramas, A Night With Edgar Allen Poe and The Balcony Scene, as well as one comedy, The Hysterical History of the Trojan War. The show opened with A Night With Edgar Allen Poe, directed by Sky Mason and Frankie Viscusi. The show was a combination of some of Edgar Allen Poe's best famous works including The Cask of Amontillado starring Isabel Samuel as Montresor and Keaton White as Fortunato, The Strange Case of Dr. Tar and Professor Feather starring Brendan Duquette and Ian Korslund, The Tell-Tale Heart starring Chris Cotta as the Narrator. Next came The Hysterical History of the Trojan War, directed by Joe Marino and Travis Garlick. Complete with musical numbers from Homer (Joe Marino) with Achilles (Corey Beauregard) on guitar, nerf gun fights between Hector (Ian McDonald) and the Spartan army (Brendan Emmanuel, Jack Cappadonna and Larry Velino), epic sword battles between Hector (Travis Garlick) and Achilles, crazy soothsaying from Cassandra (Molly Hillis), and timeless love between Paris (Jon Sanders) and Helen (Jessica Kaelblein), the show had the audience in stitches. It would go on to win Crowd Favorite at the end of the night. Brendan Emmanuel earned Best Actor for his role as Ajax. Closing the night's festivities was The Balcony Scene, directed by Erin Kayata and Ashley Walnut. The thought-provoking drama told the story of a young man (Matthew Udall) at his own funeral watching and hearing what people really thought of him. He is accompanied by an angel (Isa Laskorski) who disproves his perception of what people thought of him. In a poignant, tear-jerking ending scene where the young man's girlfriend (Heather Shore) speaks to him, the audience was left in stunned silence. Erin Kayata and Ashley Walnut earned Best Director and Heather Shore received Best Actress for her exceptional performance.

the music man

10 The Music Man

Date: April 16 and 17, 2010
Time: 7:00 PM EST
Location: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

From the very beginning of auditions for Meredith Willson's The Music Man, magic was in the air of the Judith Cobb Theater. The Music Man told the story of Professor Harold Hill (Joe Marino), a swindling music salesman who tricked people into buying band instruments under the false pretenses that he'd organize and lead a boys' band in their town. When Harold Hill arrives in River City, Iowa, he expects to pull the same wool over their eyes. With the assistance of his old friend Marcellus Washburn (Joe Kain), he gets the people into a frenzy over the new pool table in town. But as he continues to hoodwink Mayor Shinn (Travis Garlick), his wife Eulalie (Heather Ann Krasner), and the rest of the townspeople, he begins to see the error of his ways and falls in love with Marian (Theresa Bertolino), the town librarian. He spends most of the show evading the school board turned barbershop quartet (Ryan Caster, Brendan Emmanuel, Brendan Duquette, Jane Thibeault), who keep trying to get his references and papers, by tricking them into breaking into rousing acapella numbers in the middle of the street. The show ends when Harold, who has been arrested, leads the children of River City in a musical performance and the townspeople realize that Harold Hill's coming to River City made everything happy. Principal Robert Gay, to whom the show was dedicated, made a cameo appearance in the opening scene and sang during the finale. As usual, the sets and costumes were truly stunning. With fabulous performances from the actors and actresses and wonderful music from T.J. Rizzo and the pit orchestra, the show was nothing short of magical. For the seniors, it would be the final time that they would perform on the stage.

10 NAHS seniors strut their stuff

Date: March 10, 2010
Time: 6:00 PM EST
Location: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

Every year, students, friends, teachers and family members file into the auditorium for this one comical night. Several boys in the graduating class show their personalities and talent on the stage through acts, performances and even dancing. The show began with a group dance performance to the hit pop song "Tik Tok". The contestants answered a few insightful questions after a lovely stroll down the catwalk with their dates in both formal and, later on, casual wear. The hosts, Brea Dusel and Megan Morra, did a fantastic job in entertaining the crowds between acts. Tyler Matte took home the crown with a lighthearted Stephen Lynch song while playing the piano. Ryan Caster placed second after singing "Everything" by Michael Buble.

Information

It's as easy as π !

Under the superb guidance of Mrs. Marcotte, this year's Math League dominated the competition. As always, this group of math-savvy individuals met once a month to take a timed, six question test. The top five scorers on the test became the school's Math Team, and their scores were combined to represent NAHS against other schools in the New England Math League. This year, North got off to a great start, trailing league powerhouse Mansfield by just a few points. At the end of the season, North finished with 117 out of 180 possible points, second only to Mansfield. These successes were due to the hard work of a dedicated group of upperclassmen and the unflagging enthusiasm of younger members. This year's Math League would like to thank Mrs. Marcotte for her support and wish the best of luck to future Math Leaguers.

This unique group of players came from different corners of NAHS, but they all had the secret passion for chess. The game takes a lot of patience, wisdom and strategy and when walking by one may never even notice anyone in Mr. Herber's room with the pin-drop silence. Competition gets intense amongst these players too, however, it's always friendly.

The boys concentrate on their next move without a glance of notice to the camera.

Information

Project Teammate is an exceptional group of volunteers who are paired with a BICO student as a "teammate". These mentors spent tons of time with their students and in return always had a warm welcome for their visits. Over time, these "teammates" became good friends, ready for a high-five or wave when passing through the hallways. The goal for Project Teammate is to provide each BICO student with someone they can rely on for company and fun once or twice a week. Soon they grow accustomed to their new friends and eagerly wait for their arrival. Many of these mentors became quite the cheering crowd for their teammates in the annual Special Olympics held in May.

Information

Building Bridges (AKA Gay-Straight Alliance) is an outstanding aspect of North Attleboro High School. Established years ago as a group of individuals committed to accept all "types" of students, the group worked hard to promote acceptance in all areas. The Building Bridges group promoted the idea of being an ally and the "Be the Change, Be an Ally" program truly helped to build bridges and connections among the student body. This club is important to the culture of NAHS because it breaks down stereotypical barriers that are created when people notice only the differences between people.

Information

Whether it's a warm blanket, the ever-popular North sweatshirt, a pair of comfy shorts or even some shower sandals, students can find everything they need at Rocket Corner. Open during lunches, this little store carries an assortment of apparel, accessories, and North spirit goodies. The shop is flocked with customers in the fall as students rush to buy Thunder Stix and other Big Red paraphernalia for the upcoming rallies.

recycling

Information

With the current environmental crisis in the world, this group of students is a vital part of North Attleboro High School. Their regular arrival into classrooms to collect the recycling bins is often overlooked, however, without their help, NAHS would not be as environmentally savvy as it should be. Thank you!

Information

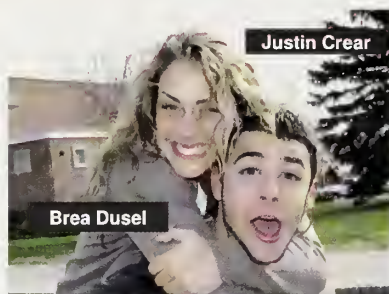

Community service, for many, is hard work and at times, not always fun. These students, however, always had a smiling face and gave 110% in their endeavours. A group like this one serves as a great role model for all those who strive to help others for no material reward.

one FAN

Information

One FAN represents an alliance between three outstanding high schools in the area: Bishop Feehan High School, Attleboro High School, and North Attleboro High School. The principals of BFHS, AHS and NAHS, and the One FAN students, shared fundraising responsibility for the annual Attleboro Area Christmas Dinner (originally sponsored by the Hagopian and the Tedesco families) held on December 25th. Dinners were also delivered to numerous shut-ins in the Attleboro/North Attleboro area. In addition, mittens and hats were provided for the homeless and needy. Students from the three schools worked side-by-side when they have collected money at the entrance gates to the football fields. One FAN students also collected at this winter's basketball tournaments involving all three schools during the last week in December. In attempting to raise money and to have students from the three schools work together cooperatively, One FAN has also held an Academic Bowl Competition, two dodge ball tournaments and has participated in the Attleboro Rome Boulevard Race with all funds going to the Christmas Dinner. The NAHS Coffeehouse students contributed in excess of $500 to One FAN from its November 6th event. This dedicated group of administration and students has truly made an impact and positive influence in the community.

Information

This year for Student Council, we really wanted to get involved. Our goal was to get the whole school on board with the fundraisers or community service that we planned. During our first few meetings, we devised a yearly plan and brainstormed many ideas. We also voted on the officers: Kathryn Bagarella as president, Tyler Matte as vice-president, Tyler Cannon as secretary and Catherine Hargrave as treasurer. During the holiday season, we raised money for Wreaths for Marines in honor of Captain Kyle Van DeGiesen. It was a huge success and a really memorable experience. The next big fundraiser we planned was on Valentine's Day where we sold a variety of flavors of heart-shaped lollipops-and they were a delicious sell-out! The most involved event we planned was March Madness. Everyday in March, the Student Council made up a different theme like North day, 80's day, Black Out day, etc. It was really fun and everyone who participated loved it! The Blood Drive is a yearly event Student Council supports. We have it twice a year and we watch over the brave students and teachers who saved 3 lives by donating their blood. Student Council could have never had as much success as we did this year without the help and support of our advisor- Mrs. Caldwell. Thank you for all that you did and good luck to the Student Council of 2010-2011!

Information

The International Thespian Society is an honor society that recognizes excellence in acting and technical theatre. To be inducted into the society one must complete 100 hours in their high school or outside theatre group. This year Troupe 1088 expanded their group and inducted eleven new members, amongst them two seniors, Jack Cappadonna and Julia Krasney. The induction ceremony includes performing embarrassing tasks as a form of initiation. We hope that the group will keep expanding with talented young actors and actresses of North Attleboro High School.

10 The Coffee House

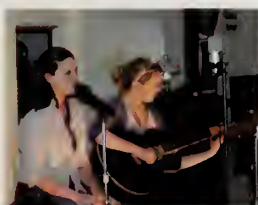

Date: One Friday a Month
 Time: 7:00 PM EST
 Location: First Congressional Church

Description

The Coffee House had one of its most successful years in 2009-2010. Headed by Joe Kain and Corey Beauregard, the Coffee House built an extremely dedicated following this year. Combining awesome music, poetry, coffee, and baked goods, the Coffee House gave everyone something safe and fun to do on their Friday nights. It also didn't hurt that all the proceeds went to extremely worthy charities such as the Dan Cronin Memorial Scholarship, the NAHS Art Department, and the newly formed Lori P. Brown Memorial Scholarship. Having some attendances coming close to 150 people, the Coffee House crew definitely did an awesome job of getting people in on Friday nights, for the sake of awesome charities. Passing the Coffee House down to new leaders Jane Thibeault, Connor Bry, and Dana Brown, Joe and Corey are hoping for a continuation of the success they have seen this year.

Information

This year's Percussion ensemble was lively, to say the least. Under the direction of Mr. Benson, the Percussion ensemble enjoyed success and tons of fun during the 2009-2010 school year. The ensemble combines many different percussion instruments to make one cohesive, melodic song. We did three pieces this year. "Final Pursuit" was our most standard percussion piece. "Creepy Little Wiggly Things" was our hardest and most intricate piece. We had to use every single instrument we owned, and even had to make a few of our own! Finally, our most popular piece was "Funky Buckets." Six talented percussionists played this awesome piece on three plastic buckets and three metal trash cans. It was definitely a crowd pleaser, and helped the Percussion Ensemble take home a 1st Place with Superior Rating from the competition in Washington D.C. Keep hitting things everyone!

Information

This year a new choral group was introduced to our school, a female quartet. The members of this ensemble were juniors Kim Fears and Heather Ann Krasner and sophomores Erin Caster and Jane Thibeault. This group did an interesting mix of songs from contemporary to classical. Highlights of this year were "Scarborough Fair", "The Blooming Bright Star of Belle Isle", and Queen's "Somebody to Love". All of these songs were arranged by senior Ryan Caster. The Quartet hopes to continue next year, find new repertoire, and strengthen their reputation as a serious performing ensemble.

Without a doubt, this was the NAHS Concert Band's most successful year. From the beginning, this was a more disciplined group than in past years. We noticed improvements during our concert, but it wasn't until the MICCA Festival where our hard work paid off. There, after playing "The Black Horse Troop," "Fanfare Prelude," and "Africa: Ceremony, Song and Ritual," the NAHS Concert Band was awarded its first Gold Medal ever. With this Gold Medal, the concert Band was invited to play at Symphony Hall in Boston and Mechanic's Hall in Worcester. After steadily getting better over the last four years, the band finally achieved its goal. Hopefully, with the same determination and drive they had this year, they can continue to keep the tradition of getting gold medals at MICCA alive. - Joe Kain

Information

Under the direction of first-year director Robert Couture, the Concert Choir had an exciting year. The rousing Winter Concert was made memorable by the Nigerian Christmas carol, "Betelehemu," complete with drums and shouts. Then, in March, the group earned its second consecutive silver medal at the MICCA competition in Norwood. The highlight of the year was, of course, the department-wide trip to Washington, DC. At the competition there, the Concert Choir cleaned house and brought home a first place trophy, a superior rating, and a "Grand Champion" trophy. After the Fine Arts Festival, the group teamed up with Norton's choral program to perform in the first Summer Sing-Off, a very successful combined concert between two towns. All in all, it was an extremely successful first year for Mr. Couture, and we hope to continue the success next year!

Information

The Marching Band was much different this year than in past years. Originally, the Marching Band camp did not have stellar numbers of participation. So, we decided to become a Pep Band. Instead of doing a field show this year, we decided to focus solely on the music. This helped us do two things. First, it helped us gain more musicians who wanted to play music at the Big Red football games, but maybe didn't want to march. It also gave us the opportunity to have a much larger repertoire of music. Our biggest crowd pleaser was "Fire Burnin'." The players loved hearing it at the games. After the fall season, Mr. Kummer asked us to play at other games because we were so popular. We played at a couple basketball games, wrestling meets, and volleyball games. Though this was a fun experience, we hope to see the band marching once again.

The Jazz Band is the only auditioned band at North Attleboro High School. The group features an ensemble of roughly twenty students and rehearses once a week. This year, the ensemble played charts including: Groove Blues, Sugar and The Wiggle Walk. Throughout the year, the Jazz Band performs at countless venues such as The Clark Terry Jazz festival held at the University of New Hampshire along with more local performances like the Early Learning Center. One of the most fundamental aspects of the Jazz Band is the ability of its members to 'improv' or to make up a solo on the spot. This year, featured soloists included Corey Beauregard, Ryan Caster and Adam Whitney along with others.

Information

A Cappella Choir is generally considered to be the most playful and fun group in the school. Performing without accompaniment, the A Cappella Choir performed some contemporary songs and classical pieces, showcasing their vocal abilities. Some of these pieces include "Behind Blue Eyes" by The Who, with a solo by Joe Kain and "All My Life," by The Beatles with solos by Deanna Fournier and Theresa Bertolino. The group also performed some classical pieces, such as "Cool of the Day" with Theresa Bertolino as the soloist, and "Daemon Irrept Callidus." The group unfortunately did not have their yearly A Cappella Festival this year, but hopefully that tradition will start up again next year. The A Cappella definitely gave singers the opportunity to explore the abilities of their voices. Keep up the good work!

Information

The NAHS Music Department's Jazz Choir has had a very successful year. The 2009-2010 season has consisted of a variety of performances under the director of Mr. Robert Couture. They started the year off with a Renaissance assembly and performed the same songs, "Wade in the Water", "Deck the Halls", and "Joyful, Joyful", at the winter concert. They also spent a day during the holiday season at the Early Learning Center. There, the Jazz Choir performed a number of cultural pieces from a variety of countries around the world. Before the Spring concert, the Jazz Choir participated in the Clark Terry Jazz Festival at UNH. There they performed "Blue Skies", "Nightingale Song in Berkley Square" and "It Don't Mean a Thing". They did very well at the Festival, and a few singers were recognized as Outstanding Soloists. They performed the same numbers at the annual Spring concert and finished off the year at the YMCA, where they performed for the elderly. Awesome job this year!

National Honor Society Awards Assembly

Date: May 13, 2010
Time: 9:00 AM EST
Location: Pickering Gymnasium

Description

Annually, the National Honor Society hosts one last recognition assembly for students of North Attleboro High School. This is a time when students are distinguished and awarded for various academic achievements. The 2010 National Honor Society Awards Assembly recognized several students, in which the valedictorian, Robin Armstrong, and salutatorian, Ginny Tang, were announced. The head of each department announces students who have excelled in particular academic and talent aspects of the school. Students who have received highest honors at least one term of the year were also acknowledge. Overall, the awards assembly is an encouraging and great way to recognize the hardworking students North Attleboro High School always has.

blood drive

Give us your blood!... It's for a good cause.

Date: December 2009 and March 2010

Time: 8:00 AM EST

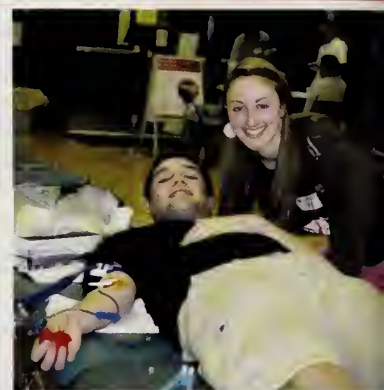

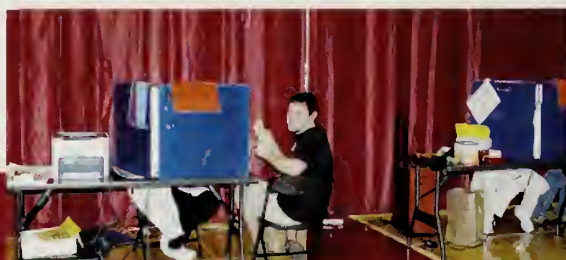

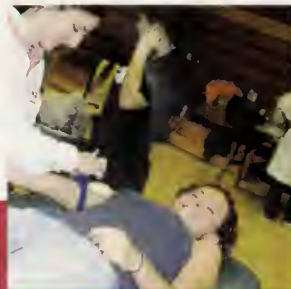

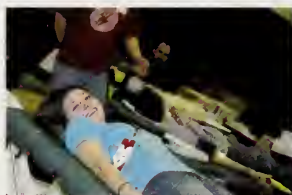

Location: Pickering Gymnasium

Description

The Blood Drive is something that Student Council holds twice a year with the help of the American Red Cross. A lot of planning must happen before the event takes place. Students and teachers sign up with our Student Council the week before the drive to set up a schedule. On the day of the drive, Student Council and the American Red Cross set up the gymnasium with all of the necessary equipment, a waiting information area, and a snack/juice table for the volunteers and donors to replenish. After volunteers sign in with Student Council, they read an international packet and wait until their numbers are called. They go through pre-registration and then are assigned a bed where their blood will be drawn. During this courageous experience, Student Council reads stories to the volunteers (Tacky the Penguin is a favorite!). Then the donors can munch on snacks like pastries, Goldfish, and fruit juice! It's a really memorable and fulfilling experience. Thank you to all who helped and donated!

10 Academic Booster Club presents: Trivia Throw Down

ate: November 16, 2009 and March 11, 2010
 ime: 6:30 PM EST
 ocation: Judith E. Cobb Theatre

Description

The Academic Booster Club sponsored the first Trivia Throw Down on Monday, November 16 in the Cobb Theatre. More than 70 students participated on 18 four-person teams. "Professor" Thomas Rizzo was the quizmaster for this event with the assistance of scorekeeper Lisa "Vanna White" Forsgard. The champions of the Trivia Throw Down were the "Senators," representing our Model Senate Program. The "Senators" won a total of $100 gift certificates from "Rocket Corner." The champion team consisted of Garrett Plath, Jen Curran, Joe Marino and Kelley Cronin. The Academic Booster Club sponsored the second round of Trivia Throw Down on March 11, also in the Cobb Theatre. Many students came back for another shot at the crown, while others created brand new teams to rival their fellow classmates. A new, intelligent team called "Sorry mom, I'm a Thespian", with Joe Marino, Joe Kain, Travis Garlick and Ryan Caster, won by a landslide 80 points. The names of these champions will be on a plaque that will be displayed in the main lobby. The ABC hopes to continue its success for many years to come.

between The Class Officers and You

Freshman Year

Back on the first day of school in September of 2006, our class entered North Attleboro High School for the first time as freshman. That year we elected Owais Khan as our President, Connor Grealish as Vice President, Barrett Holden as Secretary, and Breanne Dusel as Treasurer. We all had to adjust to not being the top dogs of our school. We got used to the tiny lockers, the harder classes, and the real homework. Although we all fought hard to keep up with this new world, we always stuck together. For instance, at the Thanksgiving Game Rally when Mr. Gay called us the most pathetic freshman class, we held our heads high and managed to match the amount of confetti thrown by the rest of the school. This was North Attleboro's first hint that something BIG was coming. Throughout the year we all worked hard to prove ourselves academically in order to make a name for the class of 2010. Our teachers and coaches guided us and pushed us and made us work to our potential and beyond.

Sophomore Year

Sophomore year had finally arrived. We were no longer the lowest on the totem pole, and we had risen above the wooden barriers of the freshman pit during lunch, but we still had a ways to go. This year, we re-elected Owais Khan as president, elected Breanne Dusel as vice president, Barrett Holden as secretary, and Austin Rainville as treasurer. Fall of our sophomore year, we were hit hard by the heavier workload and higher expectations of our class. At the Thanksgiving Rally, Mr. Gay no longer deemed us "pathetic" but rather "not very good". In addition to the traditional Thanksgiving Rally, we also had a "Homecoming Rally" this year. Senior Tom Howard served as the master of ceremonies and we lost some intense games of tug-of-war to the upperclassmen. In December, we attended our last Freshman-Sophomore Social. We danced the night away completely forgetting that we were in our own cafeteria. In the spring we braved the dreaded MCAS exams with poise... and before we knew it, we were halfway through our time here at NAHS.

Junior Year

In September 2008, we entered North Attleboro High School as upperclassmen. Our egos and spirits were high. We walked around with a new confidence, and parked our cars in the junior lot. The 10-minute walk didn't faze us, because we had our official parking passes, and we felt like kings and queens. With Joshua Solomon Harris as treasurer, Megan Michele Morra as secretary, Breanne Dusel as vice-president, and Justin Robert Crear as president, we knew that only good things would come for our junior year and for us. The pressure was on to excel in our classes and pass our SAT's, so we could get into the colleges of our choice. It proved to be an extremely difficult and stressful task, but we succeeded with flying colors. We showed the rest of the school our academic and athletic abilities and showed promise for our senior year to come. With events like the Junior Prom, the Junior-Senior Art Show, and much more, we displayed the fact that we were a force with which to be reckoned with.

Senior Year

In what seemed like such a short time we were already seniors. We had finally made it to our last year of high school and all of our hard work had almost paid off. The class elected Michael Fein as treasurer, Megan Morra as Secretary, Breanne Dusel as vice president, and Justin Crear as president. Together with the help of our advisors, Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Caldwell, and also with the support of the class, we were able to organize many life long memories for the class of 2010. Events such as the Thanksgiving Game Rally, the hypnotist show, North Idol, Mr. NAHS and the Powder Puff Football Game, are just a few memories that will last our entire lives. We started off the year taking SAT's and ACT's way more times than we wanted. Then we became even busier with college application deadlines, schoolwork, jobs, sports, and college visits. We were able to manage our time wisely as we got through all the hard work together. Being seniors, we no longer had to make the hike from the junior lot; we were even more special now that we had our senior parking passes. One of the first events we hosted was the powder puff game where obviously the senior girls demolished the juniors. Next we had the Homecoming Rally where the juniors tried challenging our seniority until they realized they would always be below us as the seniors won... again. Lastly Mr. NAHS was one of the most successful events we put on as we crowned Tyler Matte who sang his "unique" tune. To close out the year we had our amazing prom at Whites of Westport, an event that will never be forgotten. The year now quickly comes to an end as we prepare for our finals and graduation. As we say good bye to these hallowed halls we remain very thankful for our families, teachers, coaches and everyone at North Attleboro High School for making these last four years full of happy memories of special times.

"A Night on the Beach"

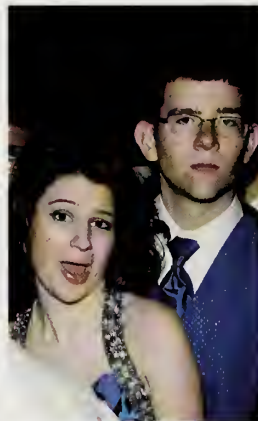

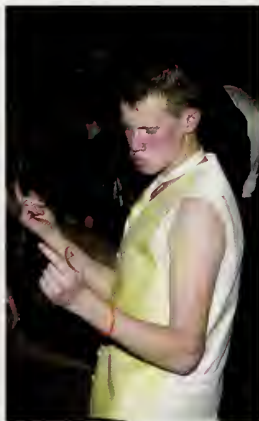

Date: May 15, 2010
Time: 6:30 PM EST
Location: White's of Westport

Description

The 2010 Senior Prom was held at White's of Westport in Westport, Massachusetts. Everyone was dressed to impress as they entered the doors to "A Night on the Beach". The decorations were perfect; seashells adorned the tables and sea-blue linens complemented the theme. The buffet-style meal satisfied everyone's hunger until they set their eyes on a picturesque chocolate fountain in the corner of the room. The DJ played a variety of songs that was sure to please everyone there. We crowned our class couple, Mike Fein and Alison Connolly, as prom king and queen. This was certainly a night no one will soon forget. The memories created are sure to last a lifetime.

"The Last Lunch"

Date: May 21, 2010
Time: 10:49 AM EST
Location: Senior Courtyard

Description

The Senior Cookout was the perfect ending to the last day of high school. The food was great, but the senior pride was even better! It wasn't unlikely to see a sea of red as you stepped out into the courtyard, as many wore their SEN10RS red t-shirts. While everyone mingled, Joe Kain brought along the North TV crew and interviewed several seniors about their future plans. In all, the weather was gorgeous, but the best part of the day was seeing all the seniors together for one of the last days of high school. Congrats Seniors!

informal class day

10 One last assembly

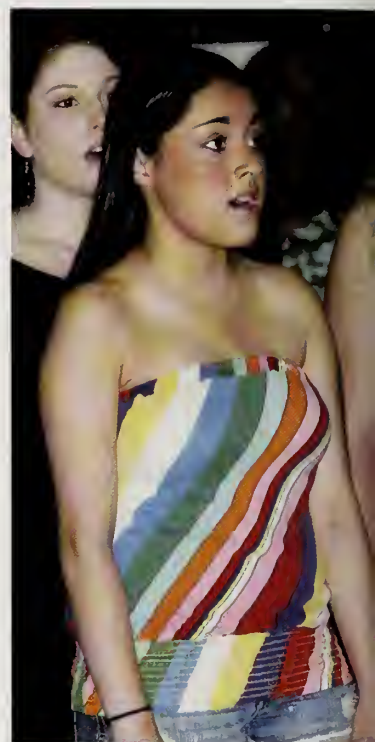

Date: June 02, 2010
Time: 12:00 PM EST
Location: Pickering Gymnasium

Description

The seniors are back in the building for one last assembly with the beloved underclassmen. Informal Class Day was two whole periods dedicated to celebrating the seniors. The class officers read aloud our class history and brought us all back to the unforgettable memories at North Attleboro High School. Ben Dubuc presented the senior slide show, which was filled with beautiful portraits and precious candid photos of special moments throughout our high school careers. Along with the sentimental and nostalgic side of the ceremony, the seniors lightened the mood, as always, with the class song "I'll Be There", the presentation of the 2010 Superlatives, and the presentation of the new Northern Light yearbook editors. The day finished with a touching speech by the current editors, dedicating this year's publication to principal, Mr. Gay.

formal class night

A night to say "Thank You"

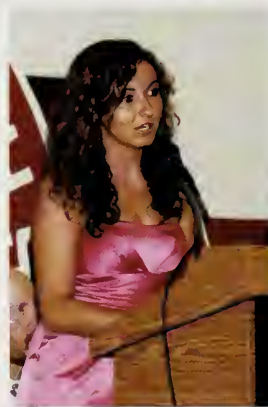

Date: June 2, 2010
Time: 6:00 PM EST
Location: Pickering Gymnasium

Description

Formal class night was a very special night for the class of 2010, our parents, and our teachers. The seniors started by walking in to the band playing and everyone supporting them, as we proceeded two by two. The senior vocalists also sang a beautiful version of the class song, "I'll Be There" by Roger Emerson. Many awards were presented to multiple students, including the Crockett Award, Athletic Trophy Cups, and the Captain Kyle R. Van De Giesen Memorial Scholarship awards. The Yearbook Dedication was also presented by the eleven senior yearbook editors, to our very deserving principal, Mr. Bob Gay. After the ceremony ended, the Senior Reception took place. All the senior students lined up outside while the parents came down the line shaking everyone's hand and congratulating each student. Refreshments were also served at the end of, what seemed, a never-ending line! This night was a night of tears, accomplishments, and very handsome and beautiful boys and girls of the NAHS class of 2010!

"Hope for Tomorrow"

Date: June 4, 2010
Time: 6:00 PM EST
Location: Raymond E. Beaupre Field

Description

The day we had long been looking forward to finally arrived. Standing in our two lines looking around at everyone in their gowns, it was hard to believe that we were about to say goodbye to NAHS. The ceremony was held outside where our friends and family were eagerly waiting to see us be together as a class for the last time. Class President Justin Crear welcomed everyone to the ceremony and salutatorian Ginny Tang gave a great speech. The senior musicians then joined the rest of the band to play a wonderful rendition of "Africa: Ceremony, Song, and Ritual." Valedictorian Robin Armstrong presented a flawless speech. After the Class of 1960 received their honorary diplomas, Dr. Rice motivated the crowd to persevere through struggles. The diploma ceremony soon began as each student walked across the stage with pride. The evening concluded with the class ode, Mr. Gay's closing remarks, and the tassel ceremony that established us as graduates. This was truly a joyful night that we'll never forget. -Nicole Hurd

"Tik Tok on the Clock but the Party don't Stop"

Date: June 04, 2010
Time: 11:00 PM EST
Location: Hockomock YMCA

Description

The 2010 All Night Grad Party was an unforgettable occasion filled with memories to last a lifetime. Serving as the final gathering of the class of 2010, the party lived up to all the excitement and anticipation. The seniors were blown away by the wide variety of activities including jousting, sumo wrestling, pickleball, the hypnotist, and many more. There was never a dull moment the entire time, as there was always something fun to participate in or observe. The night was capped off with a raffle, giving away a wide variety of fantastic items. All in attendance seemed invincible to the clocks turning past midnight, ultimately reaching five in the morning. Countless parents served as volunteers, offering their efforts and supervision for the event. Without their unprecedented help with fundraising and their creative planning, the All Night Grad Party would not have been possible. Laughter and smiles filled the Hockomock YMCA, as the class of 2010 finished off their four years at North Attleboro High School with an exclamation point. -Steve Sellner

When we first came together in August, we did not know what to expect. But we knew for sure that we had a great group. We set off to make a yearbook that would create memories, not just for the editors, but for everyone in the school. Thank you Mrs. Lush and Dan Smith from Herff Jones for all their support and guidance throughout the year. We could not have done it without you. Best of luck to next year's editors.

First and foremost, this year's senior class would like to thank and acknowledge the entire staff and administration of NAHS for creating the best four years of our lives. Although there are numerous deserving candidates, there's one man in the hallways of North High that you'll never forget.

He's not your average administrator. Once a dull Shamrock, he's become a true Rocketeer throughout his nine years here. What other principal goes down the hallways and interacts with students as if he were another classmate? He shows a strong connection with each and every aspect of the Big Red community. Whether it be a Friday night musical, a Coffee House fundraiser, or one of our famed sporting events, he, (often accompanied by his wife), shows his students dedication and loyalty – despite once being a Bishop Feehan graduate.

Always wanting to improve the school, because it is "first and foremost an academic institution", he introduced new programs such as Academic Booster Club, One FAN, Virtual High School, Renaissance assemblies, the Chinese program, and much more. It's needless to say that his positive outlook, endless support, and caring nature has touched the lives of many. Not only a principal, but once a teacher and coach, he's proved himself a true Renaissance man.

The 2010 Northern Light Yearbook is hereby dedicated to the one and only Mr. Robert Gay.

Ads started planning for the ads sale.

This is gonna be one heck of a job if we pull this off.

Ads have no idea what we're doing. Help!!

Thank God ice cream is always there to make me feel better.

Ads: everything's coming together. Hooray!!

Katie Murphy likes this.

Love dismissing myself every day. It's not like we do anything anyways

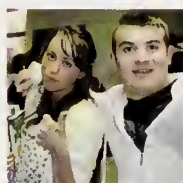

Ads: Time for ad sales. Let's do this

Colin Grafton likes this.

Glad everything is working out. Or else the yearbook would be like $100.

Ads: Second day. Don't slack off now.

Jay Pettingill likes this.

Excited to go get ads. At least I get to miss school.

Ads: Proud of all the hard work you put in.

We're definitely going to get the most ads and beat you all.

Ads: Don't forget you can still send in parent ads.

Yay, so my embarrassing baby picture can be in the yearbook forever.

Congratulations Brittany
